By signing this authorization form, you are acknowledging the following statement is true for each and every address that you request service connection/disconnection for. The undersigned hereby makes application for services provided by HES and agrees to pay for said services as measured by the Utility's meter according to HES rates. The applicant agrees that the service is subject to HES Rules and Regulations, a copy of which is open for inspection at the office of HES and that these Rules and Regulations are a part of this agreement. Turning on electricity can potentially cause fire, human shock, etc. if there are hazards such as flammable materials on an electric stove or heater or the wiring does not comply with the National Electric Code/National Safety Code. By signing below you are indicating that you are aware of this potential, have taken any and all actions to prevent any hazards and will hold HES harmless for any damage to property or persons at the service location as a result of HES turning on electric service.
